

Spinoza Entrepreneur Fund

Fund Fact Sheet • 28 November 2025 • Net Asset Value: €134.41

Investment strategy

The Fund pursues capital appreciation and achieving attractive risk-adjusted returns through a quantitative and qualitative investment selection process based on the principles of value investing.

The Fund has a special focus on investing in companies with an entrepreneurial backing or with a strong alignment of incentives between public shareholders and insiders like (i) a long-term oriented anchor shareholder like a founder or an entrepreneurial family, (ii) a significant shareholding by the management team and/or sizeable share purchases by the management team, and/or (iii) significant share buybacks.

The Sub-Fund is actively managed on a fully discretionary basis. Investments are selected based on the principles of value investing employing the Investment Manager's proprietary, rules based quantitative and qualitative investment selection process, incorporating combinations of different value, management quality and/or ownership structure parameters or criteria, that seeks to take advantage of discrepancies between the estimated fundamental value of a transferable security and its market price.

Fund manager's comment: November 2025

In November 2025, equity markets initially experienced significant declines driven by mounting concerns over stretched valuations particularly in AI-exposed companies. However, markets quickly demonstrated resilience, recovering most losses by the end of the month as expectations increased that the Fed is likely to cut interest rates by 0.25% on 10 December.

The Stoxx Europe 600 increased by +0.8%, while the S&P 500 and Nasdaq decreased by -0.6% and -2.2% (measured in EUR), respectively. Generally, developed market stocks with value characteristics performed well delivering a return of +2.2% (Bloomberg developed markets value index in EUR) while growth stocks showed a weaker performance of -1.6% (Bloomberg developed markets growth index in EUR). Mid-cap stocks showed a solid performance with the MDAX and the Euro Stoxx Mid-Cap both rising +0.6%, while Russell 2000, comprised of US mid-cap stocks, gained +0.2% (measured in EUR).

The Entrepreneur Fund returned +2.3% in November. The companies held by the Fund continued to report solid or strong Q3 results. DHL and Indus Holding returned +13% and +18% respectively following better than expected quarterly figures. There was a similar trend at French companies Eiffage (+12%) and Compagnie des Alpes (+11%). Newron performed strongly (+23%) in anticipation of a Nasdaq listing in 2026 while fund-platform provider Allfunds rose +22% following reports of a potential takeover offer from Deutsche Boerse. In the US, Howard Hughes Holdings increased +13% on the back of strong Q3 results and in anticipation of a likely acquisition of an insurance company.

The Fund increased its equity exposure to 94% of net asset value (NAV). At the end of November 2025, 4% of NAV was allocated to cash and approximately 2% to bonds and portfolio hedges. The Fund's assets were distributed as follows: approximately 69% in EUR-denominated instruments, 11% in USD, 15% in GBP, and 5% in a mix of CHF, NOK, SEK, AUD, and PLN.

Investor Profile

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking long-term capital growth and may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years.

Risks

Market risk: Market fluctuations and general market or systematic risk is inherent to an entire investment market and as such, to a varying degree, in all of the Fund's investments. Price movements in an investment market can be volatile and are influenced, among other things, by changing market supply and demand, national and international political and economic events.

Concentration risk: To the extent that the Fund's investments are concentrated in a particular country, market, industry or asset class, the Fund may be susceptible to loss due to adverse occurrences affecting that country, market, industry or asset class.

Currency risk: The Fund's reference currency is EUR, whereas the underlying investments of the Fund are denominated in a variety of currencies. Consequently, the performance of the Fund may be influenced by movements in foreign exchange rates between EUR and the currencies in which the underlying investments are denominated.

Counterparty risk: There is a risk that a counterparty will not fulfil its payment obligation for a trade, contract or other transaction, on the due date. This may result in losses.

Liquidity risk: The Fund may be exposed to liquidity risk where, due to a lack of marketability, the Fund's investments cannot be bought or sold quickly enough to prevent or minimize a loss.

Derivatives risk: The Fund may use derivatives in an attempt to reduce risk (hedging) or for investment and portfolio management purposes. It may be that the use of derivatives may not always be successful and cause unit prices to fluctuate which may in turn result in loss to the Fund.

Credit risk: The risk of default that may arise if an issuer fails to make payments when due.

Operational risk: The risk of losses caused by employees, delegates, service providers and other third parties through insolvency, errors, fraud or criminal actions.
